Poonam Estates has been established since 1986 and formerly opened on the 8th February 1987 by the local mayor.

Initially specialised in sales but now has thriving letting and mortgage departments and in the last few years the business expanded by the acquisition of JOHN MEACOCK estate agents in Heston, another prominent estate agency offering a highly professional service.

The office is serviced by a highly motivated team with an unparalleled level of experience within the property market. We specialise in a wide range of residential Sales & Lettings, Mortgages & Insurance and Commercial Properties.
